About Us

- The Glenview Concert Band has been entertaining residents of the Chicago suburbs for 40 years. The Glenview Concert Band is a community band comprised of volunteer adults throughout the Chicagoland area. The band is based in Glenview, Illinois, and performs concerts at a variety of venues around the north suburbs of Chicago, Illinois. The Band is an adult leisure time activity sponsored by the Glenview Park District.
- The Glenview Concert Band was formed in 1985 when 12 amateur musicians gathered for the first rehearsal under conductor Dick Austin, then the band director at Field School. Today, 40 years later, 3 of the original band members are still playing with the band!
- Dick Austin was succeeded by Ron Pryble. In 1987, Glenview resident Kenneth Bartosz, then Chairman of the Fine Arts and Director of Instrumental Music at Loyola Academy, took over as director and enjoyed a 26-year tenure as Director of the Glenview Concert Band. Under Ken Bartosz, the band grew substantially in both numbers and musicianship. When Ken passed away in 2013, Greg Wojcik, beloved Director of Bands for over 37 years at Glenbrook South High School, assumed the Music Director position and has been Director since 2013. The band has risen to new heights once again in both numbers and musicianship under Greg's baton.
